MINISTRY OF FINANCE

(Department of Economic Affairs)

New Delhi, the 18th April 1964

G.S.R. 613.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 15 of the Government Savings Banks Act, 1873 (5 of 1873), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules, namely,—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Mysore Government Savings Banks (Nomination) Rules, 1964.

(2) They shall come into force on the 18th April, 1964.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires—

(a) ‘account’ means the account of a depositor in the Mysore Government Savings Bank;

(b) ‘Form’ means a form appended to these rules;

(c) ‘Treasury Officer’ means an officer in charge of a District Treasury or a Taluk Treasury of the Government of Mysore.

3. Nominations.—(1) A depositor who is an individual may nominate in Form “A” or as near thereto as may be, one or more persons who shall be entitled to receive the amount at the credit of his account together with interest thereon, in the event of his death before the amount has become payable, or having become payable has not been paid.

(2) Where the deposit together with the interest thereon is payable to two or more nominees and either or any of them is dead, the amount shall be paid to the surviving nominee or nominees.

(3) A nomination made by a depositor may be cancelled or varied by a fresh nomination in Form “B” or as near thereto as may be, by giving notice in writing to the Treasury Officer of the Treasury at which the account stands.

(4) Every nomination and every cancellation or variation thereof shall be registered at the Treasury in which the account stands and shall be effective from the date of such registration, the particulars of which shall be entered in the Pass Book.

(5) If the nominee is a minor, the depositor may appoint any person to receive the amount due under the account, in the event of his death during the minority of the nominee.

(6) No nomination shall be made in respect of an account opened and held on behalf of a minor or a lunatic.

(7) A fee of fifty naye Paise shall be paid along with every application for registration of a nomination, or of any variation in nomination or cancellation thereof:

Provided that no fee shall be payable on an application for registration of the first nomination.

4. Payment on the death of a depositor where nomination has been made.—(1) If a depositor of an account in respect of which a nomination is in force dies, the nominee or nominees may make an application for repayment of the amount standing to the credit of the depositor, in the Form laid down for the purpose by the Government of Mysore accompanied by the proof of death of the depositor to the Treasury Officer of the Treasury where the account stands.

(2) If any of the nominees is a minor, an application shall be made by the person appointed by the depositor under sub-section (3) of section 4 of the Government Savings Banks Act, 1873 or if no such person has been appointed, by his guardian.

(3) If any of the nominees is dead, the surviving nominee or nominees shall in addition to proof of death of the depositor also furnish proof of death of such nominee.

(Agricultural Refinance Corporation)

Bombay, the 4th April 1964

G.S.R. 625.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (3) of Section 46 of the Agricultural Refinance Corporation Act, 1963 (10 of 1963), the Board of Directors of the Agricultural Refinance Corporation hereby makes the following amendment to the Agricultural Refinance Corporation General Regulations, 1963:

The following may be inserted as Regulation 30A in the Agricultural Refinance Corporation General Regulations, namely:—

30A Filling in a casual vacancy in the office of an elected director.—(1) In respect of an election under sub-section (3) of section 11, Regulations 27 to 30 shall apply subject to this Regulation.

(2) Whenever a casual vacancy occurs in the office of an elected director, the Managing Director shall, as early as possible after, but not later than 60 days from the date of receipt by the Corporation of an authentic intimation of the occurrence of such vacancy, cause a notice to be issued to all shareholders of the class of shareholders by whom an election is to be made to fill in the vacancy.

(3) The notice referred to in the preceding sub-regulation shall give intimation of the casual vacancy and call upon the shareholders to send, so as to reach the Head Office of the Corporation not later than 14 clear days from the date of such notice, nomination papers relating to the candidate or candidates, for election in the casual vacancy.

(4) The nomination papers received shall be considered by the Managing Director in accordance with the provisions of Regulation 29.

(5) If there be only one valid nomination he shall declare the candidate as duly elected and forthwith inform all the shareholders of such declaration by him.

(6) If more than one valid nomination has been received, the Managing Director shall cause to be sent by registered post acknowledgment due or by personal delivery against acknowledgment to every shareholder of the class of shareholders by whom the election is to be made, a ballot paper in the form in Schedule C hereto, showing thereon the names of the candidates duly nominated.

(7) Every shareholder, shall place against the name of each candidate the number of votes, if any, for him and shall have the ballot paper signed by one of its duly authorised officials in the manner indicated on the ballot paper, such signature being attested by a Judge, Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, Registrar or Sub-Registrar of Assurances or a Manager of an office of the Reserve Bank or an agent of a branch of the State Bank of India or a Government Gazetted Officer under his official seal. A shareholder shall not vote for more than one candidate and may cast the total number of votes it is entitled to or any part thereof.

(8) The ballot paper shall be returned by registered post acknowledgment due or by personal delivery against acknowledgment, to the Head Office of the Corporation so as to reach it not later than the date specified on the paper. Any ballot paper received after the said date shall be rejected.

(9) After the last date for return of the ballot papers, the Chairman or the Managing Director shall examine the ballot papers in the presence of two other directors. He shall add up the number of votes cast in favour of each candidate and shall declare as elected the candidate securing the highest number of votes. The name of the candidate declared as elected shall be published in the Gazette of India and such candidate shall be deemed to have been elected on the date of such publication.

(10) The ballot papers shall, after scrutiny by the Chairman or the Managing Director, as the case may be, and the directors, be sealed up in a cover and held in the custody of either the Chairman or the Managing Director, who shall cause them to be destroyed after ten days from the date of declaration of the election or, if by then an intimation has been received under Regulation 31, after the doubt or dispute has been settled.
